

Cinderella

Once upon a time there lived a kind girl called Cinderella.

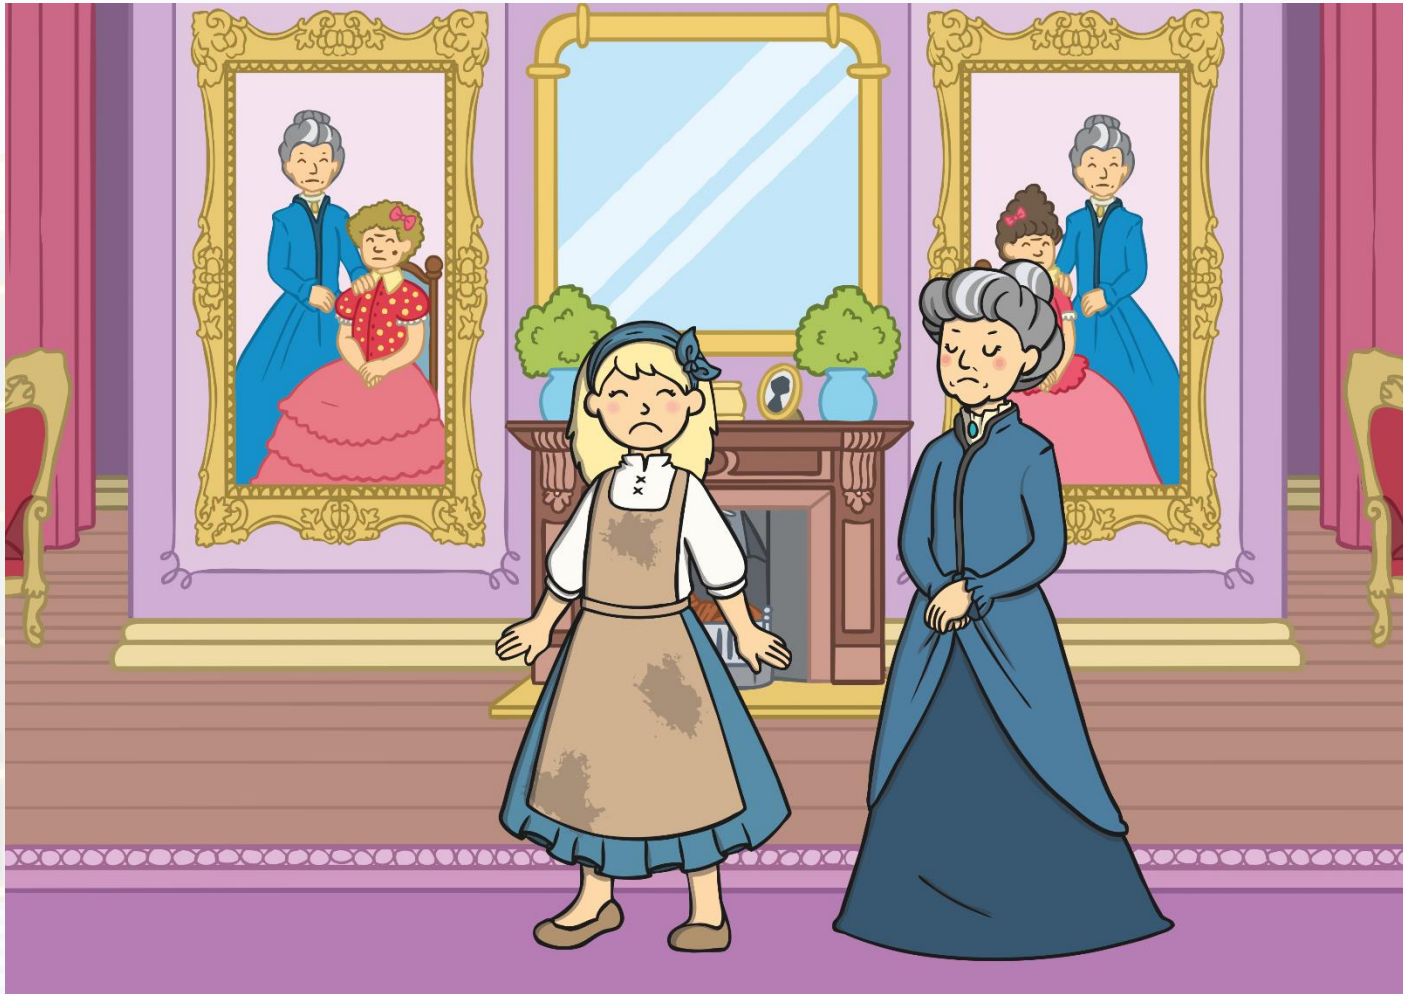

Cinderella lived with two very unkind sisters and her wicked stepmother. They were not nice to Cinderella and made her do a lot of hard work.

One day, a special invitation came from the palace that invited everyone to the prince's ball.

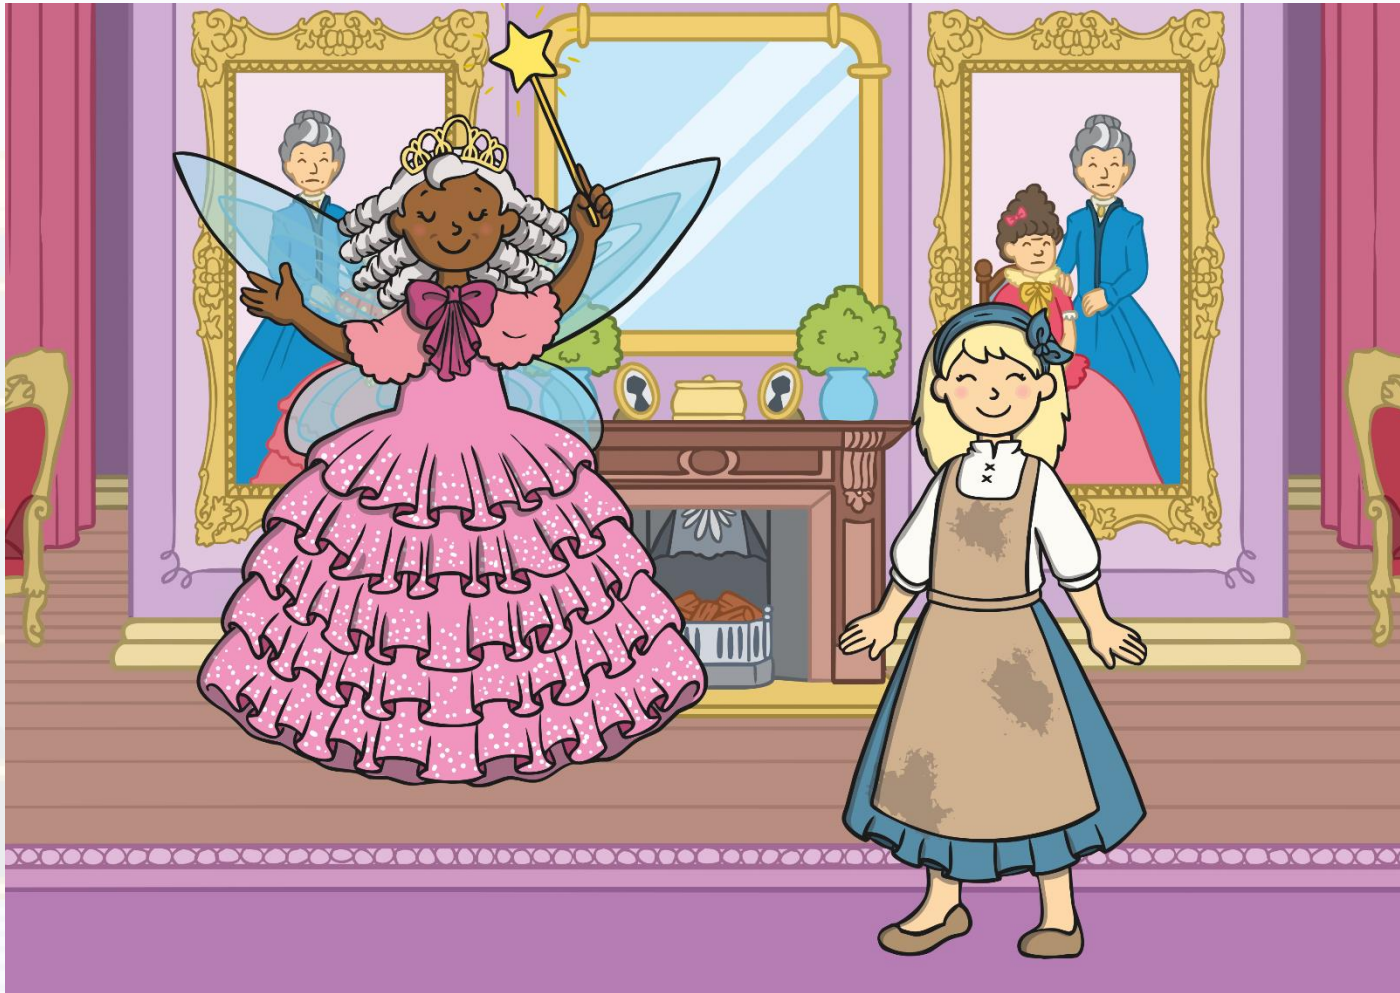

Everyone was so excited but Cinderella wasn't allowed to go.

The day of the ball arrived and Cinderella was left at the house.
“I do wish I could go to the ball,” she said.

Just then, a lovely lady with a gold wand in her hand appeared in the room. "I am your fairy godmother and you shall go to the ball!" she said.

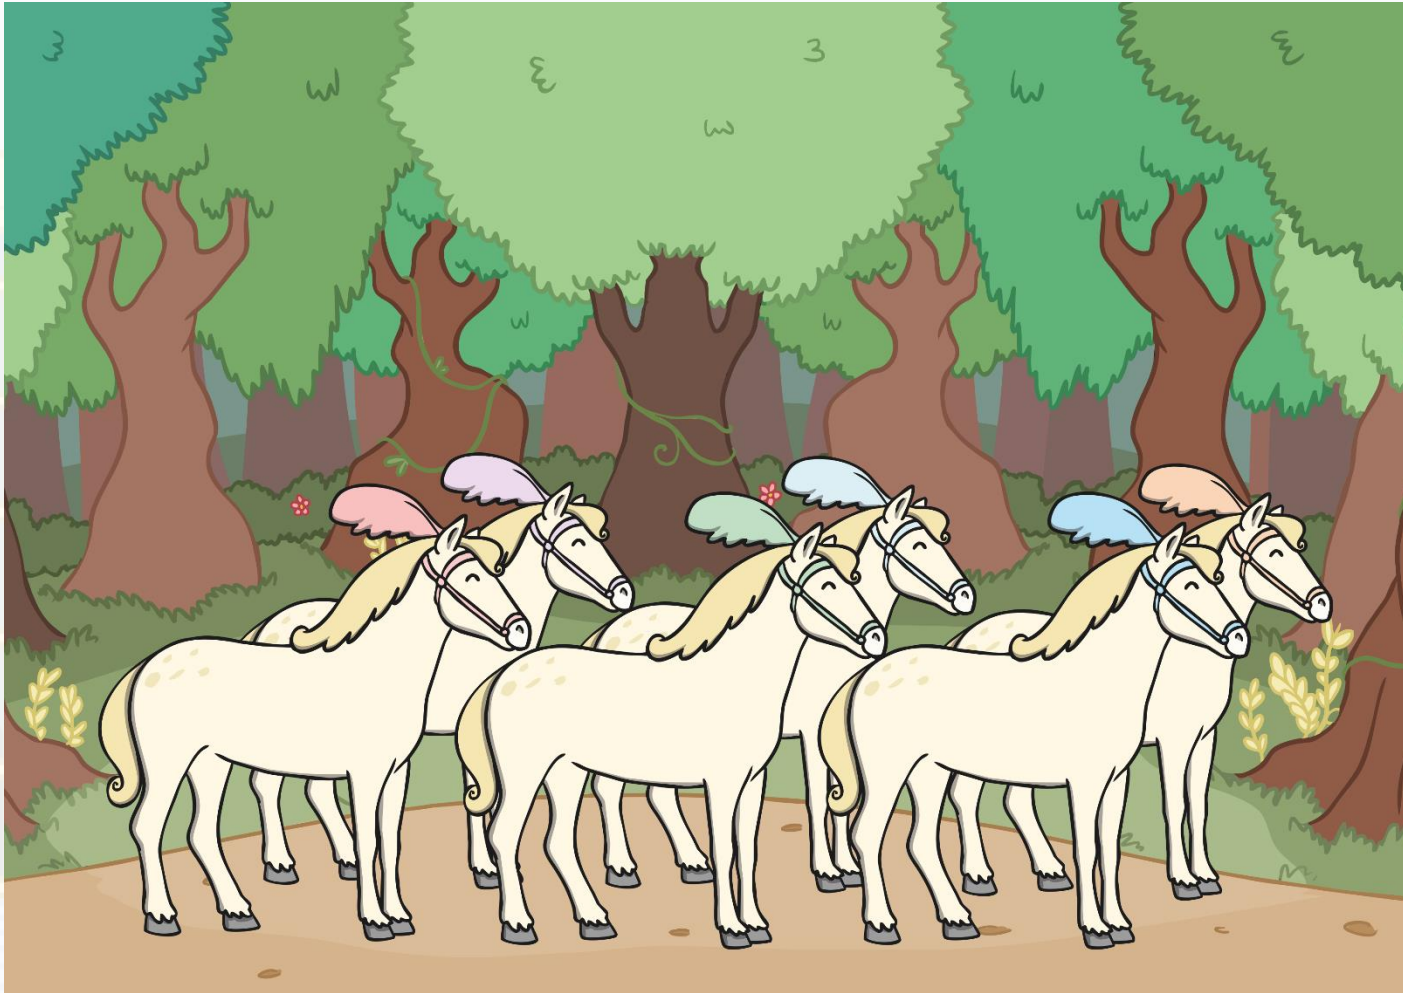

The fairy godmother asked Cinderella to find her a pumpkin, six mice, a rat and six lizards.

With the touch of her wand, the fairy godmother turned the pumpkin into a magnificent coach...

the mice into 6 magnificent horses...

the rat into a coachman...

and the lizards into six footmen.

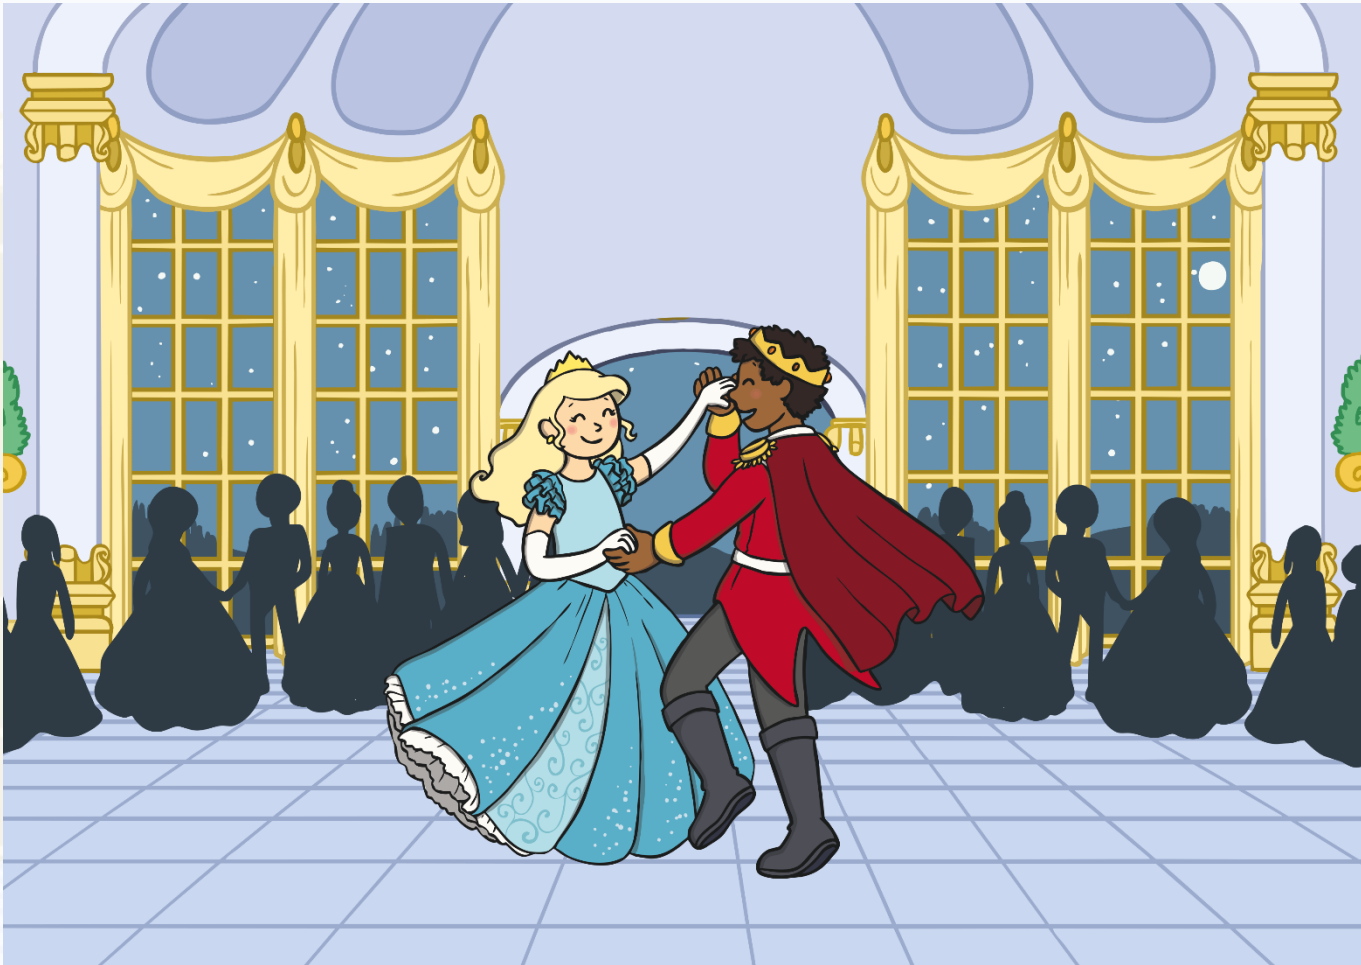

Then the fairy godmother touched Cinderella with her wand. Cinderella's old dress turned into a beautiful gown and on her feet were the prettiest glass slippers.

“Remember, you must leave the ball before the clock strikes twelve,” said the fairy godmother.

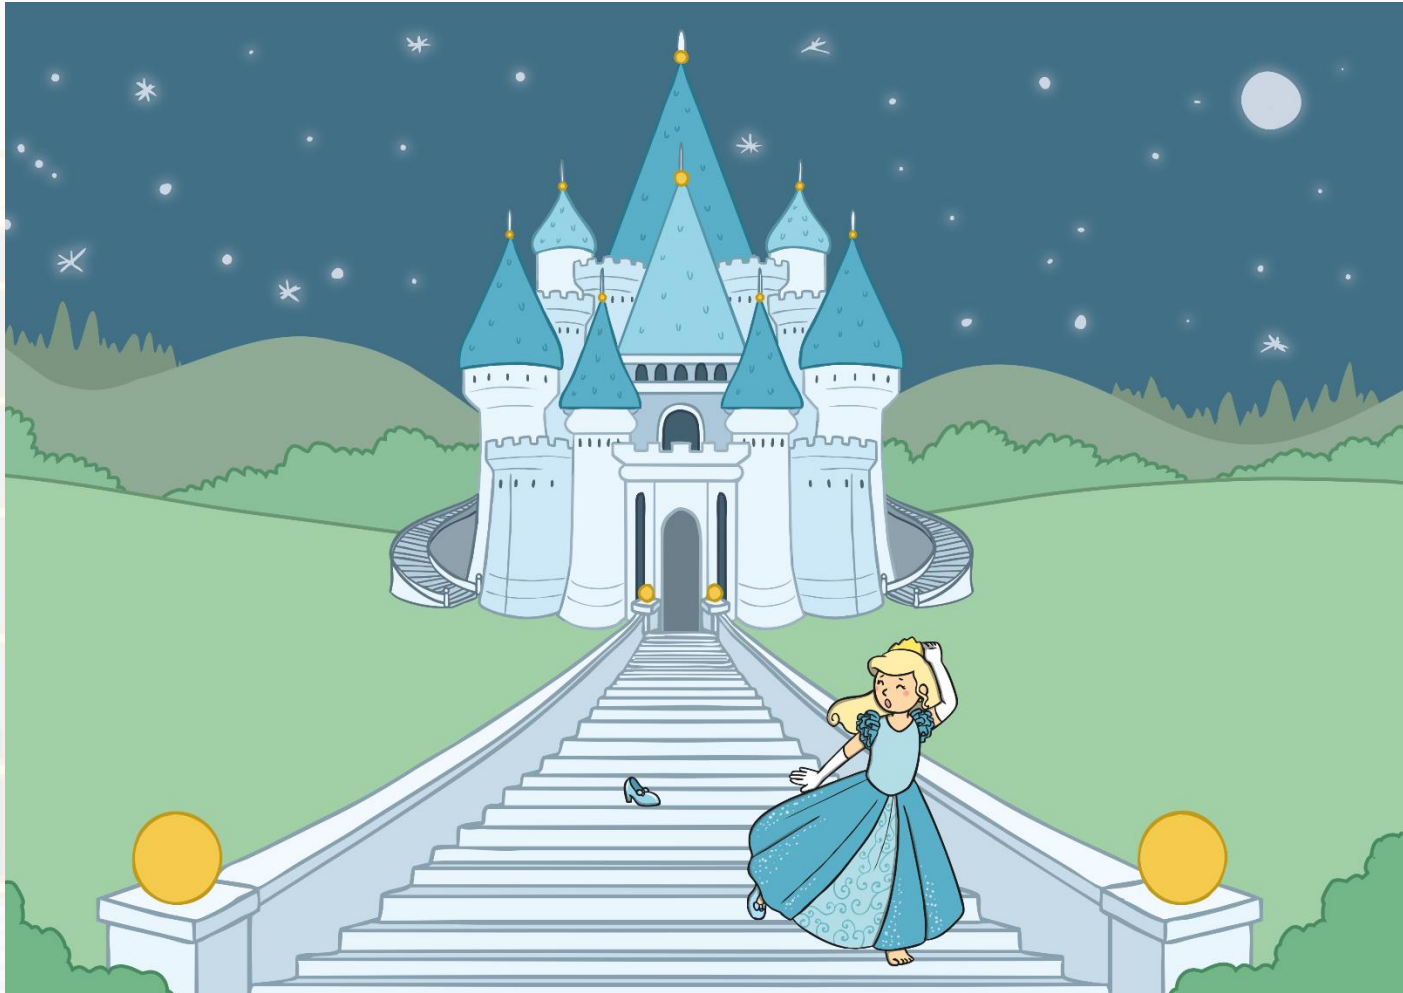

Cinderella arrived at the ball. She looked so beautiful that everyone wondered who she was. The prince asked Cinderella to dance and they danced together all night.

Cinderella was enjoying herself so much that she didn't notice the time.
Midnight approached and the clock began to strike...

Cinderella ran out of the palace. As she ran down the stairs, one of her glass slippers fell off.

The prince ran after her but he was too late! He found her glass slipper on the steps.

The Prince wanted to find Cinderella. The next morning, the prince went from house to house with the glass slipper. At last the prince came to Cinderella's house.

The Prince asked everyone to try on the slipper to see who it fitted. The first sister tried on the slipper, but her foot was too wide.

The second sister tried on the slipper, but her foot was too long.

“Please may I try on the slipper?” asked Cinderella.
The slipper fit perfectly!

The prince asked Cinderella to marry him.
They both lived happily ever after.
